The Katle P. Kountz departed Sunday evening for St. Francis river to load for New Orleans.

The John Dippold and barges passed down Sunday morning, adding a loaded barge here.

The James Howard arrived yesterday with a good trip, and went over to Hopefeld last night to take on freight. She returns Wednesday.

The John B. Maude was yesterday warned by private dispatch not to attempt to come to St. Louis. It was not so scaled, but we suppose it was on account of heavy ice. A dispatch from Louisville last night says that the towboat Dick Fulton sank a barge of coal Sunday night at Hughes's bar, six miles below New Albany. It lies in the middle of the river.

Brigadier-General Robert Speed, who has been rasteding at St. Louis, away from the busy life that prevails in Memphis, arrived home yesterday. He says it has been awful dull with him since he left.

The sunken Plow Boy has been raised, and has arrived at Little Rock. She will be carried to Mound city or some other up-five ship-jard to be repaired. Her "wound" is a slash of eight feet in her bottom. The weather of the past two days has not been what marines most delight in. On the contrary, it has been of the most villainous character, and the marine calcudar of epithets has ceused to furnish material sufficient to justify the inspiration.

St. Louis Dispatch, Saturday: "Captair David

Haney, of the H. C. Yacger, died at three-quarters past six this morning, at his home in North St. Louis. He arrived here about ten days ago, having given up the command of his boat at Vicksburg on account of sickness. Captain Haney was a steersman on the Ohio thirty years ago, and worked his way up to the command of several steamers in the Missouri and Mississippi, in one or more of which he owned an interest. He was a thorough boatman on the great streams, and had excellent and practical ideas as to the conduct and management of tonnage. The Benton steamer General Grant was one in which he owned an interest, but she met with misfortune. His cheery laugh and pleasant smile are things of the past, but will long dwell in the memory of his many friends. His family will receive about tweive hundred dollars from the Merchants Exchange Benevolent society."

is a purety vegetable letter and powerful tonic, and is warranted a speedy and cer-tain cure for Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Re-mittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Billous Fever, and all malarial dis-orders. In missnatic districts, the rapid pulse, coated tongue, thirst, lasafude, loss of appetite, pain in the back and loins; and coldness of the spine and extremities, are preincultions of severer symptoms wherminate in the ague paroxysin, ancres by high fever and profuse perspiration It is a startling fact, that quinine, arsenic and other poisonous minerals form the basis of most of the "Fever and Ague Prenamtions," "Specifics," "Syrups," and "Tonles," in the market. The preparations make from these mineral poisons, although they are palatable, and may break the chill, do not cure, but leave the malarial and their own drug poison in the system, producing quinism, dizziness, ringing in the curs, head ache, vertigo, and other disorders more for midable than the disease they were intended to cure. Aven's Agus Cura thoroughly cradicates these noxious poisons from the system, and always cures the severest cases. It contains no quinine, mineral, or any thing It contains no quinine, mineral, or any thing that could injure the most delicate patient; and its crowning excellence, above its cer-tainty to cure, is that it leaves the system as free from disease as before the attack.

For Liver Complaints, Aven's Agus Cune, by direct action on the liver and bil-lary apparatus, drives out the poisons which produce these complaints, and stimulates the system to a vigorous, healthy condition.
